2014 ANNUAL PACE REPORT

The PACE Department continued to sustain itself in 2014. We experienced fewer staffing changes in 2014 than we have in the past several years. We had two part-time PACE Officers leave; PACE Officer Ashley George took another position within the Police Department as a part-time Jail officer and PACE Officer Hailey Bond left due to medical reasons. We hired two part-time PACE Officers to replace George and Bond; PACE Officers Brandon Volker and David Dalen.

In 2014, Supervisor Evans took on the responsibility as the Jail Supervisor. He also continued to supervise the Crossing Guards, which he took an active role in with covering crossings when crossing guard staffing challenges occurred. He also attended the annual Crossing Guard Appreciation Dinner.

Supervisor Evans also continued to be involved with several committees and functions. He participated in the Parking Task Force committee, Downtown Maintenance Committee, CRC, and worked with the Downtown Development Authority.

The PACE Department also continued to work with the Building/Housing Department in dealing with code compliance issues and vacant housing issues. PACE Officer E. Bond provided vehicle surveillance for their department whenever there was reason to believe owners were renting without a license or there were questions of possible over occupancy. PACE Secretaries Ewing and Rodriguez began using the New World System in March to complete daily Code Enforcement duties. They also used the new SRMS system to maintain and monitor vehicles located at the Police Impound Lot. PACE Officers continued to support the Department when needed; such as during the ice storm and power outage of 2013 that continued through the New Year’s Holiday of 2014.

PACE was active in the Housing fair, Folk Festival, and Art Festival. We were also involved in the East Lansing Welcomes the World event at the East Lansing Library. All PACE personnel completed the Departmental yearly training which included a round table discussion with International Students. PACE Personnel also completed Ebola training in December.

Finally, PACE participated in several volunteer activities. These included the PAL Golf outing, National Night Out, and Shop with a Cop. We also volunteered at the Lansing Fire station filling gift boxes for Ingham County Triads No Senior without a Christmas; and then delivered them to Senior Citizens in the East Lansing Community.

Business Watch:

Business Watch was started in the Spring of 2012. Business Watch is modeled after “Neighborhood Watch” and takes the “neighbors looking out for neighbors” concept to the commercial level; creating a partnership between business, law enforcement and other organizations that represent business interest. Some of the 2014 highlights:

- Worked with a northern tier bank on a presentation for robbery awareness / prevention, etc.
- Worked with a downtown business owner who was having an issue with repeated retail frauds with possibly the same suspects.
- Worked with all Business Watch participants as it pertains to an ongoing phone scam involving “green dot cards”.
- Sent out an “I-Bulletin” to BOL for suspects in a Retail Fraud ring in the area.
- Business Watch notification / applications being accepted for upcoming Citizens’ Police Academy.
- Business Watch notification about problems as it pertains to Commercial Motor Vehicles utilizing Grand River Ave. for loading / unloading.
- Business Watch notification of local phone scam involving “IRS”.
- Business Watch notification as it pertains to City of East Lansing NIXLE, Code Red, Facebook, Twitter, COEL web site.
- Business Watch notification of local phone scam involving “Consumers Energy”.
- Communication with Business Watch participant as it pertains to hiring security personnel for an upcoming sales event.

The Business Watch participants continue to grow. In 2014, we added multiple participants to the program at their request.

2014 Records/Evidence/Technology Departments

2014 was a busy year for The ELPD Records Bureau. We lost two long time employees to retirement: Christie Fell and Sheryl Anderson. We welcomed Terry McRimmon in February and Jennifer Tracy in August. Both have learned a great deal in a short time and have become valuable members of the ELPD Records Team.

2014 saw the implementation of a new records management system (RMS) that allowed ELPD to finally achieve its goal of a nearly paperless records department. ELPD partnered with the Michigan State Police and was the first dual police/jail agency to go live on the new Statewide Records Management System (SRMS). Training was completed in-house and all personnel attended trainings during their duty hours. MSP SRMS staff assisted in the training and were an invaluable resource for ELPD while we worked through the first few months of the “bugs” that always come with new software & procedures. The new SRMS software in the jail cut down the booking time for each prisoner by at least half. Policies mandating the attachment of photos to case folders cut down on the amount of time spent by the Evidence Officer and Detectives and streamlined the Warrant Submission procedure process completed by Records Clerks. In addition, the use of electronic forms by officers made tracking the forms (through e-mail) easier and the forms were more legible for Records, Court, City Attorney and Ingham County Prosecutor’s Office Personnel.

In addition to the new RMS system, ELPD began to use IyeTek for not only e-citations but for electronic UD-10 Submission. The crash reports automatically download to the state and various on-line report sites that make it easier for the public to obtain a copy of their accident report.

In an effort to continue the idea of a paperless police department and in partnership with the 54B District Court, Records began electronically sending officers their informal notices through city e-mail.

Technology Update

On the technology side of things, all the In-Car Computers were upgraded to 4G Gobi cards to increase performance and speed. All cars were upgraded with Printek thermal printers when the new fleet was rolled out.

Work began on a county level to implement a new Computer Aided Dispatch System that will require all law enforcement agencies to switch to a new mobile software. Members of ELPD including Brian Hopkins (City IT), Dan Verhongstraete and Heidi Williams attended workshops & trainings for the set up of the new software. The software will be rolled out to agencies in 2015.

Work began on a new camera system for the ELPD Jail as well as City Hall. In addition to the existing camera views, additional cameras will be added to the police department to increase our building security. This project will be completed in the spring of 2015 in coordination with city IT and the East Lansing building Security Committee.
Training

Members of ELPD Records/Evidence attended training in the following areas: Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN), Michigan Incident Crime Reporting (MICR), Ebola & Infectious Disease, Criminal History Reporting, UD-10 Accident Reporting, and 2 members attended the Law Enforcement Records Management Association Conference in the fall of 2014.

Employee Involvement

Technology & Information Supervisor Williams continued to sit on the Ingham County Technology Improvement Committee (TIC), co-chaired the Ingham County Shop with a Cop Program, organized the annual Shop with a Cop Charity Golf Outing and instructed at the Lansing Community College Police Academy and for Macnlow & Associates.

Dan Verhougstraete and Barb Joseph participated in the annual Ingham County Shop With a cop program again this year and Barb organized the annual ELPD Christmas with Santa Event.

Ebani Bassage and Terry McCrimmon continued to represent ELPD at the quarterly Ingham County Stop Grant Meetings.

2014 ELPD Precision/Pursuit Driving Program Annual Report

The ELPD Precision/Pursuit Driving Program works to provide emergency vehicle operation training to all sworn officers of the East Lansing Police Department. The objective of this training is to produce and maintain safe and competent law enforcement drivers for the department. In order to do so the program takes a two pronged approach to training. Officers are exposed to both classroom and practical training in order to enhance their knowledge and skill levels with regards to emergency driving.

The unit is currently staffed by three instructors that are responsible for administering this training. The instructors are graduates of the 40 hour Michigan State Police Advanced Precision Driving Program and the 80 hour Precision Driving Instructor Course. The instructors develop and teach the annual in-service training provided to the officers. Additionally, the instructors serve on the Ingham County Sheriff’s Office Pursuit School staff.

Current instructors are:
   Lieutenant Scot Sexton
   Officer Tony Fuller

In-Service Training:
In late 2013/early 2014 East Lansing Police Department ran the annual in-service training for the sworn personnel. During these training sessions the driving program trained 54 officers in emergency vehicle operation procedures. No practical training was done since half of the department attended a practical training session at Michigan International Speedway during the summer of 2013. Training at MIS will occur again in the summer of 2015. The classroom training consisted of lectures covering:
   Policy/Procedure Review
   Legal Review
   Video presentation from Fairfax County (VA) Sheriff’s Office on “Who is really in charge at an accident scene.”
   Round table discussion on the Ford Utility SUV (expected to arrive in September 2014) and how it differs from the traditional Ford Crown Victoria

New Patrol Vehicles:
In September 2014 East Lansing Police Department began to phase out the Ford Crown Victoria as its road patrol vehicle. From September through January the new 2015 Ford Utility Police Interceptor was introduced as our standard patrol vehicle. It is an all wheel drive SUV built on the frame of the Ford Explorer. The driving staff is looking to have officers perform on-shift training with the new vehicles when the weather warms up in 2015.
2014 K9

2014 was an excellent year for the East Lansing Police Department K-9 Unit. Our K-9 teams were deployed on over 250 calls for service. Below is a current list of our active teams and estimates for future workability.

Sergeant Connelly & K-9 Tia: (Narcotics/Patrol/SRT) Tia is 9.5 years old and doing well. Tia should be able to work one more year. Tia is slated for retirement and replacement in 2015.

Ofc. Vedder & K-9 Diesel: (Explosives/Patrol/SRT) Diesel is 7.5 years old. Diesel will work approximately one more year.

Ofc. Park & K-9 Max: (Narcotics/Patrol/SRT) Max is 8 years old. Max is slated to work into the 2016 calendar year.

Ofc. Bove & K-9 Quinn: (Narcotic/Patrol/SRT) Quinn is currently 3.5 years old and will work approximately six more years.

In reviewing K-9 usage documentation there is a clear benefit in both safety and productivity to the community and agency. ELPD K-9 Teams were directly responsible for multiple felony and misdemeanor arrests, along with the seizure of currency and narcotics.

The ELPD K-9 Unit also participated in six school searches throughout the area in the calendar year 2014. East Lansing, Haslett and Okemos Schools all utilized our dog teams to search lockers, vehicles and bags. They also performed at 18 public demonstrations building the relationship between the Police Department and our residents.

Highlights of 2014 for the K-9 Unit include:

The recovery of a handgun used in an attempted murder. The gun had been discarded in a heavily wooded area and was recovered within minutes of K-9 Quinn deploying and searching.

K-9 Max was responsible for tracking down and apprehending the main suspect in a violent robbery.

Our K-9 Teams are all part of the Ingham Regional Special Response Team and deployed with IRSRT on multiple calls including the capture of a suspect on multiple murder charges. The K-9 Team also brought in TACDODS Instructor/Owner Brett Titus from Denver, CO to assist in K-9 Tactical Operations, which was attended by multiple K-9 Teams from the area.
2014 ELPD Honor Guard Report

2014 was the third consecutive year of operation for the East Lansing Police Honor Guard. This year was highlighted by the addition of three new members to the Honor Guard, the attendance and participation in some high profile events, and the completion of another successful fundraiser.

Membership:
The overall strength of the Honor Guard was increased to ten members this year with the addition of three new officers. In February Officers Horst, Naert, and Williams were selected as the newest members of the unit. These officers were chosen through a competitive process based on their work ethic, maturity, and attention to detail. In taking on this assignment these officers understand that membership within the Honor Guard would require a commitment of both time and financial resources as the unit is staffed and funded on a strictly volunteer basis.

Membership of the Honor Guard consists of one Police Lieutenant, eight Police Officers, and one non-sworn police Supervisor. This unit continues to remain unique among Michigan Police Honor Guards in that it includes a non-sworn member who performs the role of Bugler.

Current Staffing:
Lieutenant Steve Gonzalez
Officer Ryan Kuhn Officer Travis Bove
Officer Adrian Ojerio Officer Erich Vedder Officer J Young
Officer Steve Naert Officer Tonya Williams Officer Justan Horst
Supervisor Heidi Williams

Events/Training
The East Lansing Police Department was represented by the Honor Guard at 14 different events throughout 2014. This year’s event highlights include:

Valerie Johnson Funeral
On 4-18-2014 Valerie Johnson was laid to rest at the Bedford Township, MI cemetery. Valerie was the widow of East Lansing Police Officer James Johnson who was killed in the line of duty on October 24th, 1984. Since Officer Johnson’s death the Police Department had maintained a relationship with Valerie. Valerie kept the department aware Johnson family developments especially when concerning their children. She also maintained a close relationship with a few of the senior officers that worked with her husband at the time of his death.

Upon hearing of Valerie’s death the department offered any assistance that could be of use to the family. The Honor Guard made arrangements to attend the graveside service at Valerie’s burial. Eight members attended the service and, at the request of the Johnson family, had the distinct honor of serving as pall bearers.
Ingham County Law Enforcement Memorial
On an annual basis the law enforcement agencies of Ingham County hold a memorial for officers who have been killed in the line of duty while serving throughout the county. This year the organization and coordination of this event fell to the East Lansing Police Honor Guard.

The memorial was held on May 14, 2014 in Mason, MI at the Ingham County Law Enforcement Memorial site. The event honored nine officers who lost their lives while serving their communities. Six agencies provided officers/Honor Guards in order to staff the event. These volunteers served as Color Guard members, family escorts, and Firing Party members. In all, there were over 20 officers who performed these duties during the event. Additionally, East Lansing Police Chief Juli Liebler performed as the Master of Ceremonies and retired 54-B District Court Judge David Jordan served as guest speaker for the event.

Lastly, the event was well attended by family members of the fallen, distinguished guests, and community members; over 90 invitations were sent out. The memorial culminated with a gathering and refreshments being served at the Ingham County Sherriff’s Office.

Color Guard Duties
This year the Honor Guard had two opportunities to present the national colors at high profile events. On July 4th, 2014 OFC Erich Vedder participated as a member of the color guard that presented the colors during the national anthem at a Lansing Lugnuts baseball game. In a similar fashion, members assisted the Michigan State University Police Honor Guard in presenting the colors during the MSU Men’s Basketball Big 10 opener at the Breslin Center.

Officer James S. Johnson Memorial
Annually, the Honor Guard performs a memorial ceremony for Officer James S. Johnson. This year marked the 30th anniversary of Officer Johnson’s death. On October 24th, 1984 Officer Johnson was shot and killed while conducting an investigation on Hagadorn road; he is the only East Lansing Police Officer to have lost his life in the line of duty. The ceremony consists of folding and laying the National Colors at Officer Johnson’s grave followed by a playing of Taps. This year, all members of the Honor Guard participated in the event and were accompanied by department Chaplain Andrew Pommerville.

Fundraising
As in years past the Honor Guard ran a fundraising campaign during the 2014 Holiday season. This year the Honor Guard sold glass coffee mugs with the police department’s logo on it. The funds that were raised from this effort were utilized to reimburse our three new members for their uniform equipment purchases.

Conclusion
As the Honor Guard moves into its fourth year of operation it is safe to say that the unit has certainly hit its stride. While averaging more than one event a month plus training days the Honor Guard has represented the East Lansing Police Department in a variety of venues.

The ELPD Accident Investigation (AI) Team responds to accidents where additional investigation or expertise beyond the normal patrol officer is required. This usually entails traffic crashes that result in serious bodily injury or a fatality. The AI team will do detailed sketches of the accident scene, take extensive amounts of photographs, and conduct detailed interviews with witnesses. Members of the ELPD AI team and their training level are as follows:

Officer Chris Shadduck – Accident Reconstructionist
Officer Jeff Walsh – Accident Reconstructionist
Officer Dave Stoltzfus – Accident Reconstructionist
Officer Tim Smith – Accident Investigator
Officer Steve Whelan – Accident Investigator
Officer Adrian Ojerio – Accident Investigator
Officer Dave DeKorte – Accident Investigator
Officer Todd Quick – Accident Investigator
Lieutenant Scot Sexton – Accident Investigator

In 2014 the ELPD AI team was called out to assist the road patrol on five different occasions.

In May, a motorcycle lost control going eastbound on Saginaw near Abbot. Both occupants were thrown from the motorcycle. The female passenger suffered a major leg injury. Neither party suffered a head injury despite not wearing a helmet. The female passenger fully recovered from her leg injury.

In May, a motorcycle on northbound 127 near Trowbridge Rd. lost control and struck a concrete barrier. This happened because the driver experienced a seizure while driving. The driver suffered a fatal head injury as a result of the crash.
In July, a Dodge Charger struck several telephone poles on the North side of Saginaw near Abbot Rd. This knocked out power in the Glencairn and Whitehills neighborhoods for several hours. One passenger in the vehicle suffered a severe laceration to her face. AI team investigators were able to establish the vehicle was traveling 89 mph when it struck the first telephone pole. The driver was charged with Operating Under the Influence of Drugs and causing serious injury.

In September, a Saturn was traveling southbound in the northbound lanes of US127 near Trowbridge was involved in a head-on collision with a large delivery van. Both occupants of the Saturn suffered fatal injuries as a result of the accident.
In December, a Ford Expedition was traveling eastbound on State Rd. between Chandler Rd. and Coolidge Rd. The vehicle lost control and struck several trees on the south side of State Rd. The driver suffered fatal injuries as a result of the crash.

Officer Stoltzfus, Officer Smith, and Officer Whelan attended several training sessions at MSU during 2014. Many of the courses were free or offered to ELPD at a reduced rate.
The East Lansing Police Field Training Officer (FTO) program is an extension of the law enforcement selection process. It combines pre-field training with objective evaluations to ensure that the standards of a competent law enforcement officer are met. The FTO's are involved in teaching, training, coaching and evaluating the recruit officer as they “earn” the right to wear the East Lansing Police Department’s uniform.

During 2014, Officer Ryan Panetta and Officer Ashley Harkins had successfully completed the FTO program. The program consist of four phases that take (1) year to complete.

THE FIELD TRAINING UNIT MEMBERS:

Sgt. James Phelps
Officer Derek Rodriguez
Officer Tom Blanck
Officer Kristine Khoury
Officer Chris Shadduck
Officer Jeff Walsh
Officer Adrian Ojerio

Officer Mark Potter
Officer Tom Wachowski
Officer Dean Kelley
Officer Adam Park
Officer Ryan Kuhn
Officer Jeff Thomas

These members adhere to “The Field Training Officer’s Code” that states:

“I renew my status as a Field Training Officer by what I do each day. I know my strengths and weaknesses and I constantly strive to improve.

I live by a moral code and my actions set an example for others to emulate. I seek responsibility and face every situation with boldness and confidence. I evaluate every situation and estimate the best course of action. No matter what the results, I take full responsibility for my actions.

I train my trainee with tact, enthusiasm, firmness and fairness. They know I do not assign them any task that I cannot perform. I see they understand the tasks explained to them and I make their welfare one of my primary concerns.

These things I do in fulfillment of my obligation as a Field Training Officer.

(Adopted from the U.S. Army Leader’s Code)
The Community Relations Coalition (CRC) intern program continued into its fourth year of existence with 9 new interns and 1 returning inter. This year’s interns met with Police Captain Jeff Murphy, PACE, and the CRC police officers in the fall of 2014 to go over what was expected of each member of the coalition. Police and PACE issues were discussed with the interns and they were encouraged to work with their neighbors in preventing crime and PACE violations, and to work with their officers to solve any community problems in their area.

The interns completed at least one ride along with their police partner and kept in constant contact with them through emails and phone contacts. It appeared that the program is working as our quality of life issues in the neighborhoods continue to decline each year.

The Community Relations Coalition (CRC) kicked off another great year of community building and outreaches in the East Lansing-MSU community with ice cream socials at 300 Bailey Street on September 3rd, 239 Oakwood Ave on September 8th, and another ice cream social on September 10th at 1054 Marigold Ave. These ice cream socials provided the long-term residents and students living in close proximity to each other with a chance to come out and mingle in a fun and informal neighborhood setting. CRC officers also have been involved in giving residents tips on home security and talking with the fraternities on how to be responsible neighbors.

The CRC hosted three neighborhood cleanups following home MSU football games on September 21st, September 28th, and October 26th. These events provided community members an opportunity to meet their CRC interns and police officers, while working together to clean up the community. These events kicked off in the East Lansing Police Departments east parking lot. The CRC also hosts a premier event called Taste of East Lansing and has been actively involved in other community events like East Lansing Welcomes the World, Autumn Fest, SAFE Halloween/Great Pumpkin Walk, and Winter Glow…to name a few.

The East Lansing Police Department warrant program was re-implemented in November of 2014. The warrant program supervisor compiles a list of recently entered East Lansing warrants from the Michigan Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN). A cursory background is then completed on each of these individuals in attempt to find a current residency for these individuals.

A consolidated list is then published to the Patrol Officers. In the course of their routine duties Officers attempt to contact these wanted individuals.

Upon making contact with these individuals they are arrested on the spot and brought to the East Lansing Police Department where they are allowed to post bond or see the judge once he/she becomes available.

2014 East Lansing Police-Neighborhood Watch Report

ELPD Officers began the year developing and delivering disaster preparedness presentations to each of the neighborhood associations. These presentations were in response to the ice storm and resulting power outages which occurred during the latter part of 2013. The goal of these presentations was to educate and better prepare the citizens of East Lansing for future crisis situations. These presentations were completed over a four month period and concluded with an Emergency Preparedness/ Nixle training conducted at the Hannah Center for the Prime Time Seniors.

ELPD Officers reached out to Greek Life at MSU, all of the Fraternities and Sororities were contacted in an effort to welcome them back to school and to make sure they knew how to be good productive neighbors. Five sororities and six fraternities took advantage of these “safety/good neighbor” presentations and got to know their neighborhood Officer. We also partnered with the East Lansing Co-Ops for the first time this year. ELPD Officers provided the Co-Ops with the same information and opportunities that the fraternities and sororities have benefited from the last few years.

Watch Officers attended several neighborhood picnics, meetings and ice cream socials. We were part of National Night Out and the East Lansing meets the world events held at the East Lansing Library and MSU Campus. ELPD officers attended a total of 66 meetings in 2014, addressing such concerns as: suspicious activity, noise violations, destruction of property, drugs, neighbor disputes, dog complaints, solicitors, code issues, speeding, parking, transient people, party litter and much more.

Watch goals for 2015 are to continue to serve our neighborhoods in any way necessary to ensure a high quality of life for our residents. We look forward to creating more partnerships within the community, while maintaining the contacts we have already established.

2014 Hiring Consolidation/Recruitment/Retention

In the closing months of 2014 East Lansing Police Department identified a need to revamp its hiring processes, recruitment endeavors, and retention abilities. This process involves a moderate change from past practices and will require an ongoing effort into the new-year.

Consolidation

Historically, the police department has had six different hiring processes that it could run at any given time. These processes included the positions of Police Officer, PACE Officer, Jail Service Officer, Civilian Administrative Assistant, Cadet, and Crossing Guard. While each position certainly holds different requirements the process of hiring the best candidate could vary significantly. In an effort to standardize/centralize departmental hiring the responsibility was placed under Police Administration. In the past, the hiring processes were left up to the individual unit supervisors. While a basic framework was followed by each supervisor there remained disparities within the process that required resolution.

To standardize these processes a hiring guide was established for each position. Moving forward, each hiring process will be administered in accordance with the hiring guide with oversight being provided by Police Administration. It is important to note that the individual unit supervisors will remain heavily involved in the hiring of candidates for their work groups. The unit supervisors will play a role in each step of the hiring process from application scoring to interviews to selection.

Recruitment/Retention

Along with the consolidation of the hiring processes, the department is undergoing an effort to enhance its recruiting efforts. In order to accomplish this, ELPD has established a relationship with the Michigan State University School of Psychology. In the spring of 2015 graduate students from MSU will be on site to complete a study of the department’s current practices and make recommendations for improvement. This study will utilize research literature, benchmarking surveys of similarly sized departments, and a review of nationwide strategies for recruiting. At the completion of the study the graduate students will present their findings and recommendations.

In addition to the academic study, the department is undertaking an employee development program. This program is aimed at civilian employees that wish to become sworn Police Officers for the City of East Lansing. The program will contain measures to ensure that these employees are on track academically so that they may apply to the police academy, provide basic law enforcement knowledge, and give them practical experience that will aid in the navigation of the police hiring process.
Throughout the years East Lansing Police Arson Investigators have worked closely with the East Lansing Fire Department. That tradition continued in 2014 as the unit aided with origin and cause investigations in conjunction with the East Lansing Fire Marshall. The unit consists of three investigators that are trained by the Michigan State Police Fire Training Unit in the detection, collection, and preservation of physical evidence pertaining to the crime of Arson. In addition to this basic training the investigators have pursued continuing education to maintain and improve their skill levels. The unit has the ability to investigate structure, vehicle, and a variety of miscellaneous fire scenes.

All three investigators are also members of the International Association of Arson Investigators (IAAI).

Current Members:
LT Steve Gonzalez  OFC Dave DeKorte  OFC Jeff Walsh

Investigations:
2014 saw a dramatic decrease in fire investigations for the ELPD Arson Investigation Unit. By the end of the calendar year the unit only had one call to assist the East Lansing Fire Department on a fire investigation.

Structure Fire: On the evening of October 5, 2014 both the East Lansing Police and Fire Departments responded to an emergency call at a large apartment complex. A resident of the complex had reported a rapidly growing fire on his apartment’s balcony. The fire quickly extended to the building’s roof and caused substantial damage to all three floors of the building. Fortunately, all of the residents were able to escape without injury.

A police arson investigator was assigned to the incident to assist the East Lansing Fire Marshall. Upon the completion of an extensive investigation it was determined that the fire was accidental in nature with the likely source of the fire being poorly extinguished cigarettes.
Assignments
This year we were consistent with staffing and members and were able to concentrate on Traffic Safety and enforcement. Motor unit officers were able to flex their hours reducing overtime at shift change and benefiting all affected by late calls. This not only benefited the traffic officers by giving them the ability to direct enforcement to problem areas in a more focused manner but also benefited shift officers as well as the community. On days that a traffic officer was assigned on a flex or offset shift, that traffic officer had the ability to take “late calls” so that day shift officers could be released on time. The traffic officer also had the ability to take calls while the next shift was in briefing allowing for a more seamless shift change as well as quicker response time during shift change.

Officer Ojerio was pulled from the unit in January 2014 to assist training a new officer, otherwise 2014 was a productive year for us and we were able to address several traffic concerns.

Training
In 2014 we had two training days to work on the slow speed skills and the breaking exercises that are necessary to keep the officers safe in traffic. Officer Ojerio also conducted the STOPs training at our annual in-service training for 2014.

Leases
Traditionally, the traffic unit has had four motorcycles leased during the course of one season. During the 2014 season, the unit has active leases on only three BMW RTP1200 motorcycles. Two of the Leases end 09/14/15 and the third lease ends 03/16/16.

Special Enforcement
Throughout the year, we had several requests for special enforcement in neighborhoods, by residents. Many of the requests have to do with speed enforcement, stop signs and overall bad driving. We logged many hours in various areas of the city to give special attention to these complaints.

Moving forward in 2015
We had hoped to be able to move into a new space to be renovated as the new motor garage located in the Grove St. parking ramp, however the original estimates obtained early on in this project didn’t reflect the work that needed to be done for this space to be up to code for its use. The newer estimates were much higher than originally estimated and we have put this project on hold until the new budget year. This project is a priority for us as our current space is not conducive for a long term space for the unit. This space is also closer to the Police Department and easier to access in inclement weather.

Introduction
This is the 2014 annual report for East Lansing Motor Carrier Enforcement. Motor carrier enforcement in 2014 continued in combination with routine traffic patrol. The increase in motorcycle patrol this year was reflected in a lower number of full inspections. Full Inspections can only be completed with the use of a patrol car. However commercial citations were still written from the motor unit.

Taxis / Vehicles for hire
Many questions and concerns over taxis and vehicle for hire were addressed this year including training shift officers in limo, taxi laws and local ordinances.

Also in 2014 Uber a new on-line ride sharing service began appearing in East Lansing. This development of social ride sharing has lead to the creation of the Greater Lansing Taxi Authority.

While the GLTA is in talks with Uber over proposed regulation, currently the city has several cases pending in regards to various citations issued to Uber drivers. Along with the GLTA the Michigan Legislature is also considering new legislation on social ride sharing and updating the Limo and Bus regulations. There will be new changes in 2015.

Additional Training
Ofc. Ojerio did attend the annual MSP CVSA training and did maintain his status as a federally certified motor carrier officer.

Several businesses also did take advantage of our pro-active inspection and question offer. Area businesses have been advised and are encouraged to pro-actively contact the motor carrier officer with questions about commercial laws and regulations. Businesses are also given the opportunity to have walk around inspections done. These inspections result in only warnings for violations and are an educational opportunity for the owner / operators of the CMVs.

Motor carrier also worked with MSU this year in clarifying weight and load restrictions on Trowbridge Rd. This clarification should result in the lighter loads being brought onto campus via Trowbridge road. Trowbridge road is the main access point to MSU and with many construction projects occurring, it has seen a large increase in construction traffic. This clarification will hopefully extend the life of the road surface and reduce replacement cost for the city or possibly lead to cost sharing to improve the roadway.

Conclusion
The continued training, enforcement rate and support from administration illustrates that the East Lansing Police Department’s main focus for commercial vehicles is on safety and compliance.
