MSU BROAD ART MUSEUM ANNOUNCES JANUARY PROGRAMS
Including Family Day and public tours.

East Lansing, MI – The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) is pleased to announce upcoming public programs for January 2024, including Family Day and public tours.

Have you ever wondered why the MSU Broad Art Museum looks the way it does? Join Curatorial Research and Administrative Assistant Thaís Wenstrom for a tour of the MSU Broad Art Museum's architecture on Sunday, Jan. 7 from 1–2pm. Visitors of all ages are invited to learn more about the unique building and the Pritzker Prize-winning architect behind it.

The MSU Broad Art Museum is always free and open to all. Visitors are encouraged to reserve free tickets in advance to attend January events. Visit broadmuseum.msu.edu/calendar for more information and to register today.

January 2024 Public Programs Calendar:

All events take place at the MSU Broad Art Museum unless otherwise noted.

Family Day: LIFT

Saturday, Jan. 6, 11am–3pm

First Saturday means Family Day at the MSU Broad Art Museum! Make creative connections with our exhibitions through free hands-on and interactive family fun throughout the museum. Family Day is generously sponsored by PNC.

Museum Tour: Architecture

Sunday, Jan. 7, 1–2pm

Have you ever wondered why the MSU Broad Art Museum looks the way it does? Learn more about our unique building and the Pritzker Prize-winning architect behind it through this tour led by Curatorial Research and Administrative Assistant Thaís Wenstrom. Celebrate our museum and its unique place in East Lansing! All ages are welcome.

Museum Tour: *Andrea Canepa: As we dwell in the fold

Sunday, Jan. 21, 1–2pm

Did you know that clothing can both liberate and oppress? Join Associate Curator Teresa Fankhänel for a walkthrough of the exhibition Andrea Canepa: As we dwell in the fold, which explores what it means to hide oneself from the gaze of others and how fabrics shape the way we relate to who we are. Catch this exhibition before it closes! As we dwell in the fold is on view through Jan. 21.

The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) connects people with art through experiences that inspire curiosity and inquiry.

Presenting exhibitions and programs that engage diverse communities around issues of local relevance and global significance, the MSU Broad Art Museum advances the university values of quality, inclusion, and connectivity. Opened on November 10, 2012, the museum was designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Zaha Hadid and named in honor of Eli and Edythe Broad, longtime supporters of the university who provided the lead gift for its creation.

Michigan State University has been working to advance the common good in uncommon ways for more than 150 years. One of the top research universities in the world, MSU focuses its vast resources on creating solutions to some of the world's most pressing challenges, while providing life-changing opportunities to a diverse and inclusive academic community through more than 200 programs of study in 17 degree-granting colleges.
